

Prof. Magdalena Ratajczak, professor in the Institute of International Studies, University of Wrocław (Section of International Communication). Deputy director of the Institute of International Studies (since 2009), head of the Section of International Communication at the Institute of International Studies (since 2017), coordinator of Double Degree Programme with Padua University in the Institute of International Studies. Member of International Editorial Board "Peace Human Rights Governance Journal" (University of Padua), chair of the Section of Intercultural and International Communication of Polish Communication Association (since 2016). A member of Research Team „Helvetic Initiative”.

Main fields of interests: transcultural communication, diaspora and ethnic media in Europe, studies in cultural pluralism in European media, diaspora diplomacy, refugees and human rights, Swiss multiculturalism and Swiss media system. Author or editor of 6 books and monographs, over 60 articles and book chapters in Polish and English.

Scholarships and grants of Polish Foundation for Science, Central European University, Erasmus Mundus Global Studies, Erasmus Program, British Council and GARNET (FP 6 Network of Excellence), many Rector's of Wrocław University Prizes for teaching and organizational achievements. Study and research visits at University of Plymouth, University of Zurich, University of Cologne, University of Ljubljana, University of Klagenfurt, Roma Tor Vergata and University of Padua.

Publications 2018 – 2019 (January)

M. Ratajczak, Switzerland, in: K. Konarska (ed.), Media markets in the Western states: structure and regulations, Cracow 2018, Universitas, pp. 179-202 (in Polish).

Waiting for publishing:

M. Ratajczak, M. Ryniejska – Kieldanowicz, J. Arendarska, F. Fischer, Crisis as a challenge for International Communication, Peter Lang 2019 (in English).

M. Ratajczak, M. Ryniejska – Kieldanowicz, J. Arendarska, B. Łódzki, The Image of Migration Crisis in Polish Media, Peter Lang 2019 (in English).