

Saturday 6th

14.30	Venue opens
15.00	Kampiringisa: A Childhood Behind Bars A centre for children in conflict with the law has also become a dumping ground for unwanted street children.
15.30	Q&A With Director William Ek-Uvelius
16.30	The Bullying Diaries Explores the causes of the problem, hoping that the often vicious cycle of bullying could break. Are we willing to listen when the children are talking?
17.30	Q&A With Director Alexandros Chantos
18.30	Everyday Rebellion What does the Occupy movement in New York have in common with the Spanish Indignados protests or the Arab Spring? Is there a connection between the struggle of the Iranian democracy movement and the nonviolent uprising in Syria?
20.30	Q&A With Director Arman Riahi
21.00	Refreshments and Live Music by Shum Davar

Sunday 7th

14.30	Venue opens
15.00	475: Break The Silence In March 2012, Amina Fillali, a sixteen year old girl from a small town in the North of Morocco ended her days by swallowing rat poison after being forced to marry her rapist.
16.30	Secret Of The Dawn "Love hurts three times - when they cut you, when you marry and when you give birth"
18.00	Pray The Devil Back To Hell A small band of Liberian women who came together in the midst of a bloody civil war, took on the violent warlords and corrupt Charles Taylor regime, and won a long-awaited peace for their shattered country in 2003.
19.30	Panel Discussions: Creative Activism and Civil Disobedience: a new age for social movements
20.30	Refreshments and Music