

21st June

TACKLING SUSTAINABILITY AND CLIMATE CHANGE

Innovative policy perspectives and critical approaches

The session will be streamed on Zoom for the whole day at the link:
<https://unipd.zoom.us/j/85176165849>

9:30-10:30

Keynote speech by Theresa Mockel and Q&A session

10:30-12:30

(Coffee Break included)
-Giorgia Pane, University of Palermo
"From Indigenous Peoples-driven litigation to future generations' standing in Western Europe: a path towards a more ecocentric view of the climate crisis"
-Antidius Kaitu, University of Antwerp
"Future Generations and Climate Change: A Critical Examination of their Legal Status in International Law"
-Martina Sardo, University of Palermo
"Addressing environmentally-induced migration through soft law instruments. Towards new obligations to cooperate?"

12:30- 14:00

Lunch break

14:00-16:00

-Gianluca Pardi, University of Teramo
"The relationship between business and the human right to a healthy environment: a view on the role of the technology sector."
-Larissa Jane Houston, University of Graz
"Human Rights and Sustainable Development: A case study of the right to energy access"
-Michal Plsek, University of Milan-Bicocca
"Sustainable Development Goals and International Investment: Where does climate action stand?"
16:00-16:45
Round table with Professor Alberto Lanzavecchia, Chairperson of the day

22nd June

MARGINALISATION AND VULNERABILITY

Perspectives on structural obstacles to the enjoyment of human rights

The session will be streamed on Zoom for the whole day at the link:
<https://unipd.zoom.us/j/85176165849>

9:30-10:30

Keynote speech by Professor Koen De Feyter and Q&A session

10:30-12:30

(Coffee Break included)
-Naoual El Yattouti, University of Antwerp
"Cultural and Religious Manifestations and Discrimination in Health Care"
-Ilaria Lorusso, Maastricht University
"Making sense of EU's approach to Gender Mainstreaming (GM): the case of migration policy"
-Yasser Salimi Namin, University of Warsaw
"Muslims in Europe: victims of social marginalisation or self-segregation?"

12:30- 14:00

Lunch break

14:00-16:00

-Gergana Tzvetkova, University of Ca' Foscari Venice

"Rights and Risks in the Digital Dimension: What Is and Should Be Done to Protect Women? "

-Gregorio Enrique Puello-Socarrás, Corporación Universitaria Minuto de Dios

"Decent work rights, Informality and risk management in digital work scenarios: thoughts on labour welfare in the digital gig economy"

-Natalia Pietruszka, University of Wrocław

"Policies preventing secondary victimisation of sexual crime survivors by the media in Poland and Italy – how authorities protect vulnerable victims?"

16:00-16:45

Round table with Professor Koen De Feyter, Chairperson of the day

23rd June TACKLING A VANISHING PEACE Multidisciplinary responses to conflicts by peaceful means

The session will be streamed on Zoom for the whole day at the link:
<https://unipd.zoom.us/j/85176165849>

9:30-10:30

Keynote speech by Professor Gudrun Østby and Q&A session

10:30-12:30

(Coffee Break Included)

-Benjamin Nurkić, University of Tuzla

"The role of transitional justice in Bosnia and Herzegovina between justice and legal certainty (stability)"

-Lucia Botti, University of Macerata
"The Women's Court in Sarajevo: an alternative model of transitional justice through a feminist lens"

-Laura Piel Martin, University of Wrocław

"The pain of one, the voice of many: surviving sexual violence across the Global North-South divide"

12:30- 14:00

Lunch break

14:00-16:00

-Giovanni Battista Bronzini, Università per Stranieri di Perugia
"Religious freedom and neoconservatism: the case of the American Enterprise Institute"

-Davide D'amico, University Pompeu Fabra Barcelona

"The social construction of international relations under anarchy: the formation of collective identities with dependable expectations of peaceful change"

-Suliddin Baghirov, University of Wrocław

"Reshaping public opinion: Russia's information front during the Second Karabakh War between Armenia and Azerbaijan"

16:00-16:45

Round table with Professor Sara Pennicino, Chairperson of the day