FUTURE SOCIALS

This screening is part of a series of five academic meetings organised within the University of Padova for educational, research-dissemination, and Third Mission purposes. The event is strictly non-profit and reserved for members of the University community. No tickets are sold, no entrance fee is charged, no donations are collected, and no sponsorship, advertising, fundraising, or other commercial activity is connected to the screening. All copyrights and related rights in the films remain with their respective rights holders. The films are shown solely for educational and non-commercial purposes, in accordance with Italian copyright law, including Article 15(2) of Law No. 633/1941.
