Zero Evictions Marathon 2024

The first International Marathon of testimonies, talks, science, and art against forced evictions, 11 October 2024

On October 11th, the Human Rights Centre of the University of Padova, Italy, in cooperation with the International Alliance of Inhabitants (IAI) will hold the “International Zero Evictions Marathon” as part of the World Zero Eviction Days (October 2024).

The marathon will bring the voices of resistance from across the globe to demonstrate how they are fighting back.

The ZEM will feature live sessions and recorded contributions across time zones, from Oceania to the Americas.

Our objectives are:

- Increasing commitment against forced evictions and homelessness as violations of human rights
- Focusing on the link between forced evictions, homelessness and climate crisis (see the findings and follow-ups of the International Tribunal on Evictions - ITE)
- Discussing the impact of AI in the housing market and policies
- Supporting global solidarity networks to defend housing rights activists
- Advocating for the implementation at all levels of housing policies grounded in human rights (eg ITE recommendations)

When:

11 October 2024, from dawn to dusk, from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. UTC (Click for local time)
